What makes you proud to work for the University?

The staff. Colleagues are very supportive and work well together.

The quality of the programmes we deliver, and our superb students and colleagues.

The good feedback from students and members of staff.

I love my work and love making an impact in the workplace with the help of my staff.

The opportunity to give back to communities and to inspire students to do likewise.

I enjoy working with dynamic committed people.

Delivering great service to fellow colleagues and externals and representing the University as a diverse, international organisation.

The inclusive nature of the education on offer.
