Some of the things you said

I choose not to put in a lot of extra time because this gives the impression the team are coping with the workload, when really we aren't.

My team and my colleagues are excellent.

I feel we don't do enough in terms of recognition throughout the year.

The University need to have a 'bottom up' approach and encourage, listen and deliver on ideas presented from front line staff.

I feel the University acts fairly regardless of ethnic background, gender, religion, belief, sexual orientation, disability, marriage/civil partnership, pregnancy/maternity or age.
