

Vision

The Development Office of Edinburgh Napier University seeks to advance the University's vision and mission. Promoting awareness of the University to key audiences and securing private philanthropic support will enable the University to deliver its strategic priorities by involving our alumni and the greater community in the life of the University.