

BrowZine: the app version

BrowZine is great for helping you keep up to date with current research in your discipline. It enables you to:

- Create a personal library of favourite journals.
- Discover library journal subscriptions you weren't aware of.
- Save articles on your mobile device to read later even when you are offline.

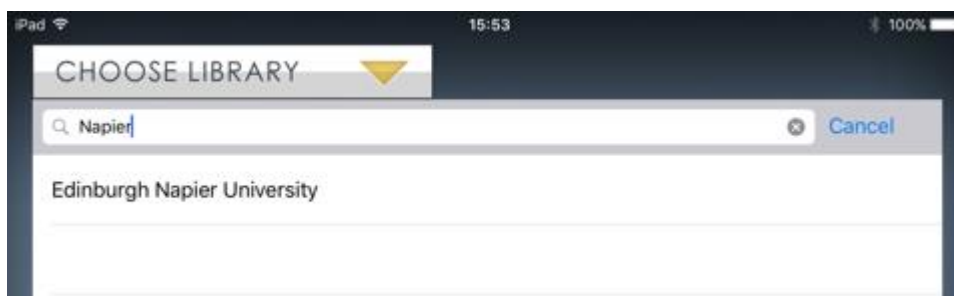

Below are instructions on using the app version. An app is available for Apple and Android devices, and for Amazon Kindle Fire. (There's also a web version).

Please note that BrowZine does not give access to all of Edinburgh Napier University Library's subscribed journal titles.

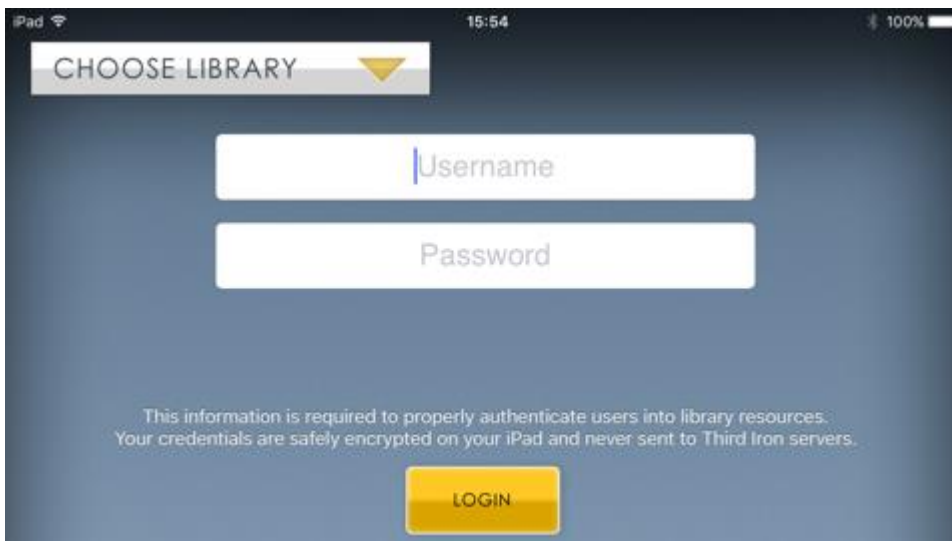

- Not all publishers are supported - for a list, see <http://support.thirdiron.com/knowledgebase/articles/132654-what-publishers-do-you-support>
 - If an unsupported title is returned by a BrowZine search, a link to LibrarySearch is provided.
- Pre-2005 volumes are not included.
- Neither are magazine-type journals and newspapers.

Getting started with BrowZine

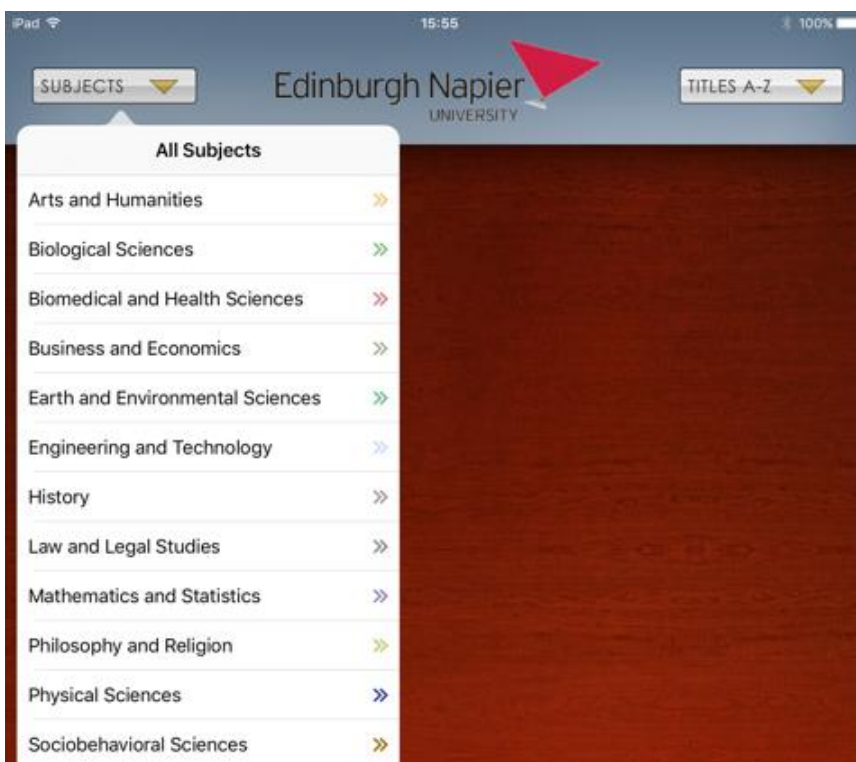

1. Download the app from the App Store, Google play or the Amazon appstore.
2. Choose your library.

3. Log in with your university username and password.

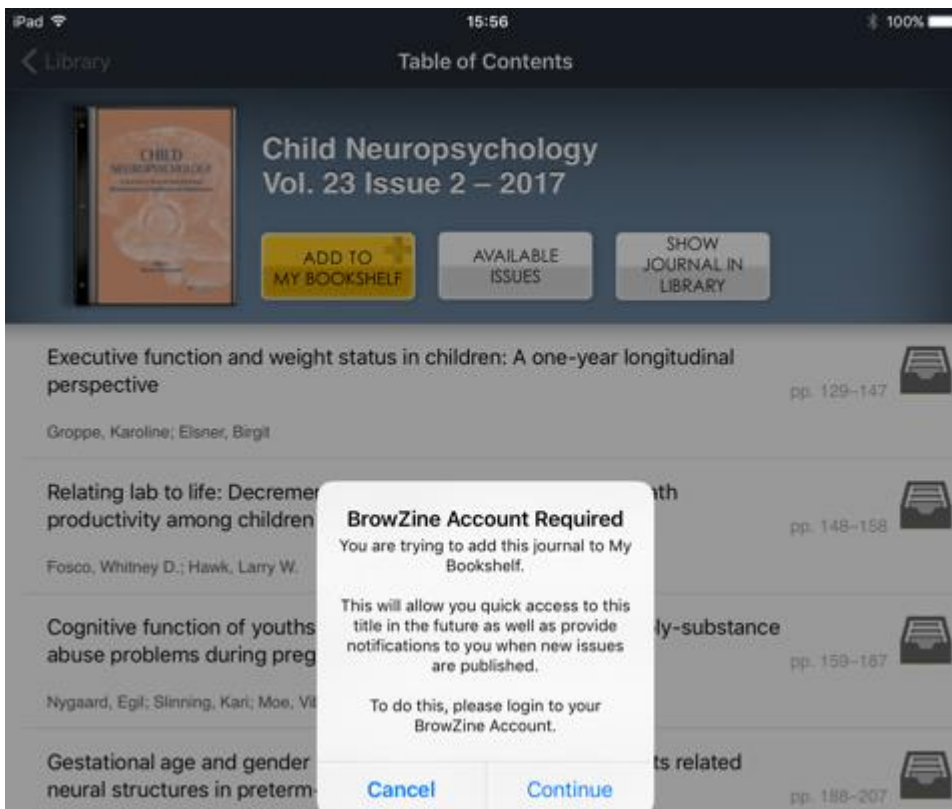

4. Browse by subject or title.

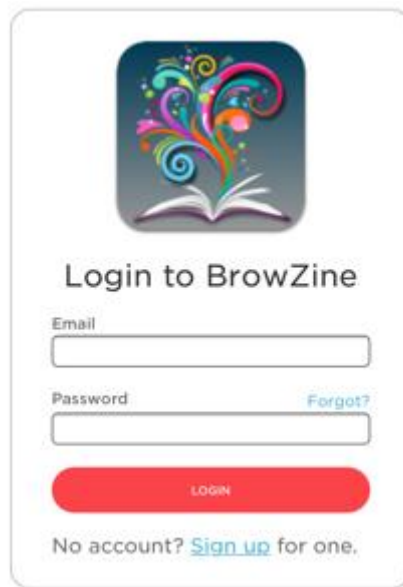

5. Select a title.

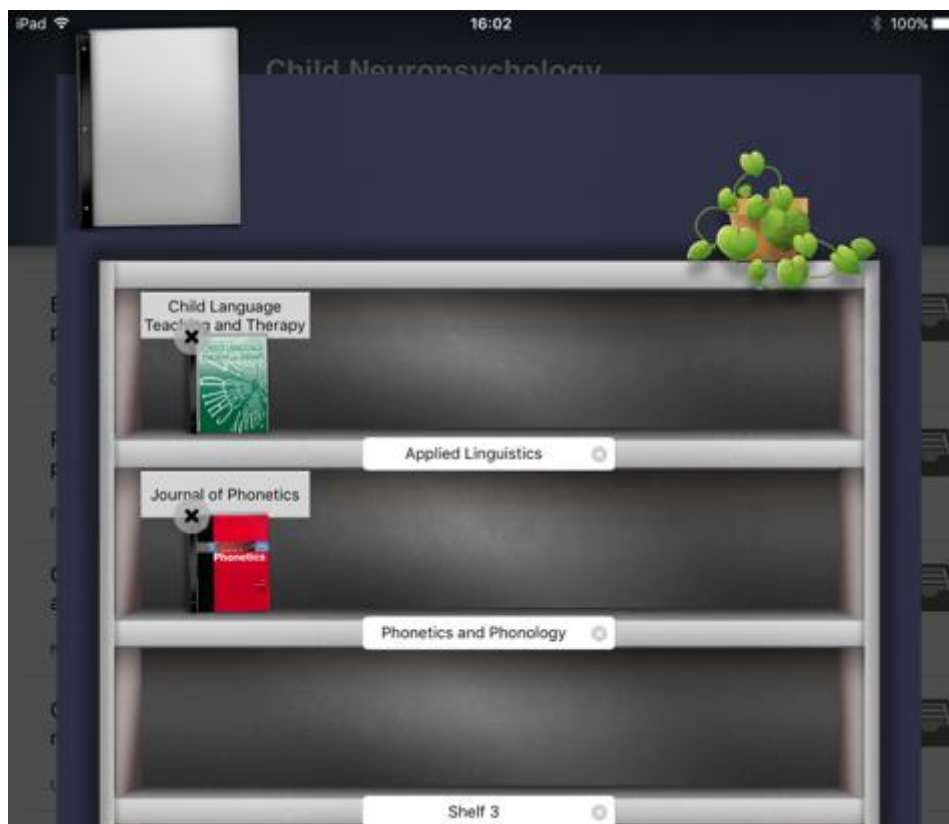

6. Add it to My Bookshelf. You will see a message prompting you to log into your BrowZine account. Click Continue.

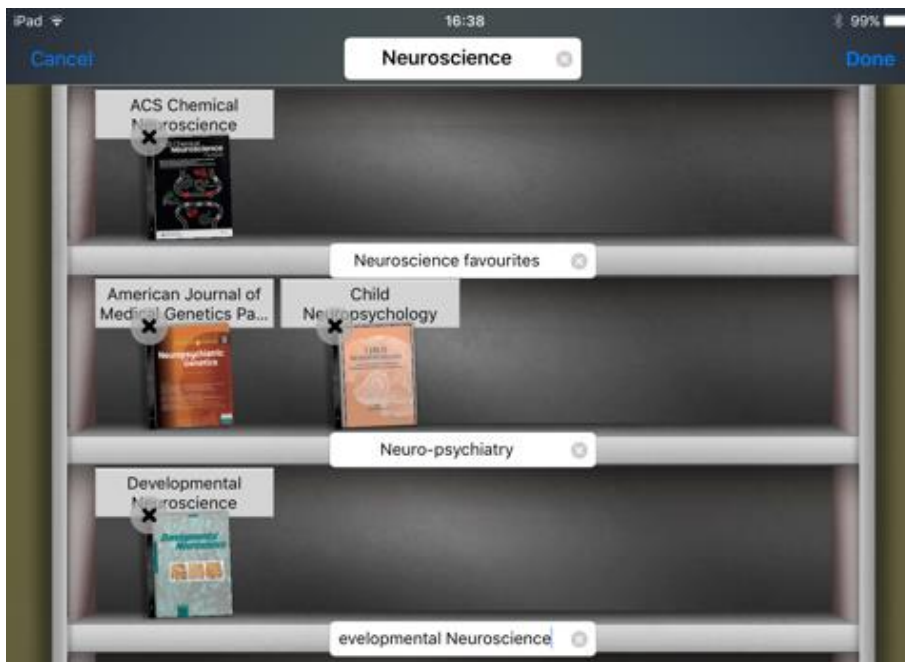

7. If you don't already have an account, you will need to create one.

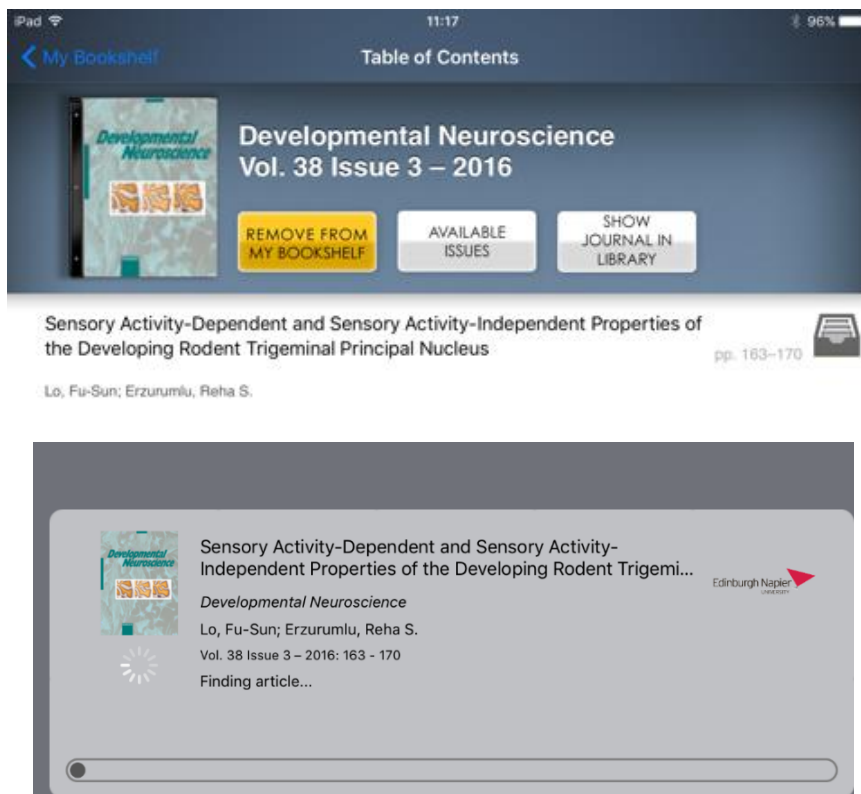

8. Once logged in you will see My Bookshelf. Swipe left to find the bookcase you wish to add the new journal to.
9. Drag the greyed out journal onto an empty shelf.

10. Click the shelf label to add a shelf name and click Done.

11. To save an article for offline reading, click on the title. The article then downloads.

12. Red bubbles help you keep track of unread (since you added the journal) articles within a journal.

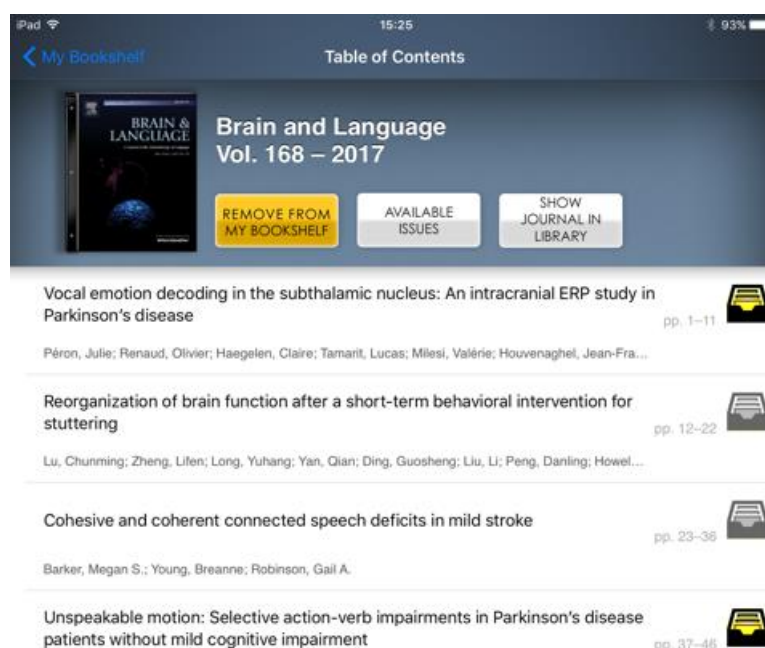

13. Within a journal issue, unread articles are identified by blue bubbles.

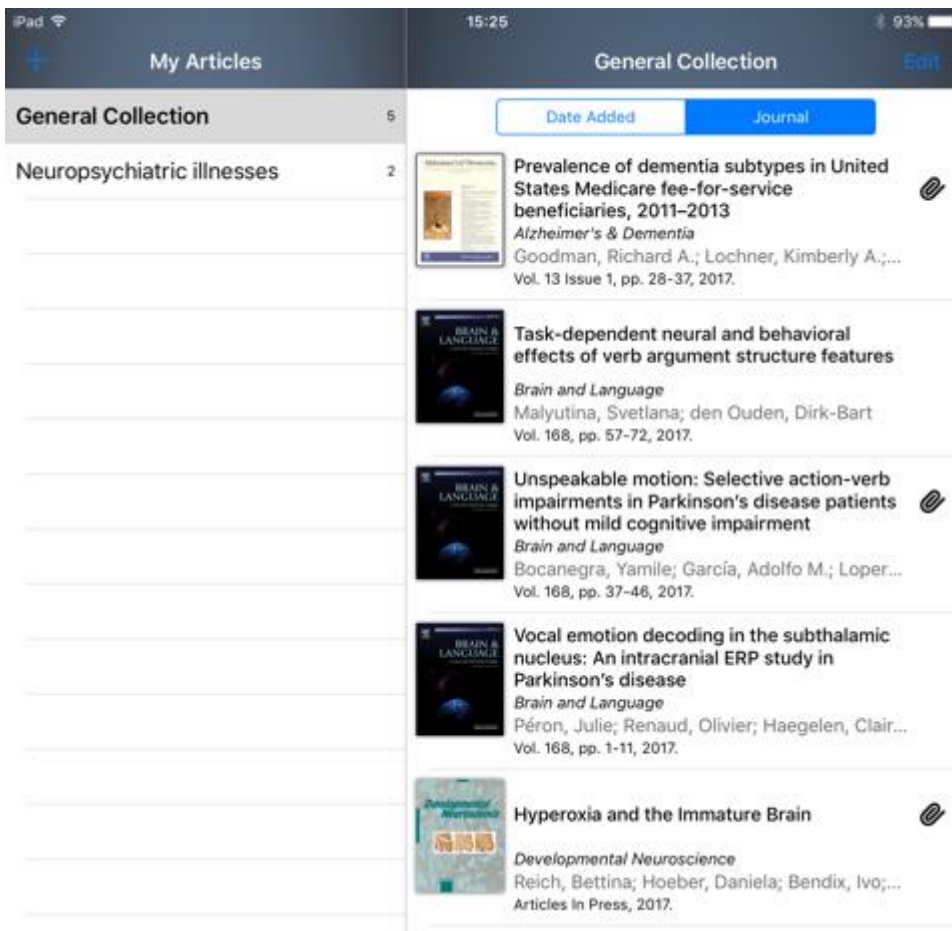

Adding Articles to My Articles

1. Click the filing cabinet icon to add an article to My Articles.

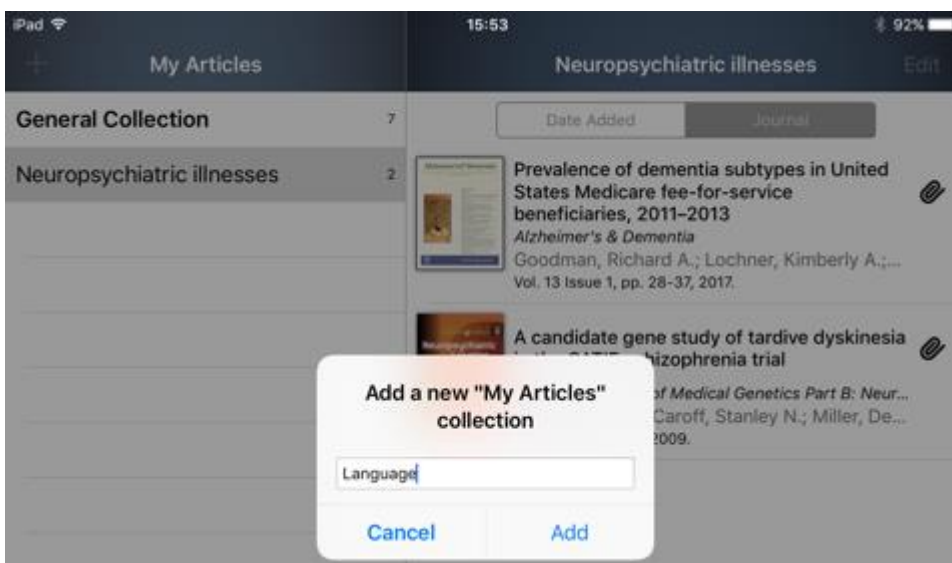

2. The articles then appear in your General Collection

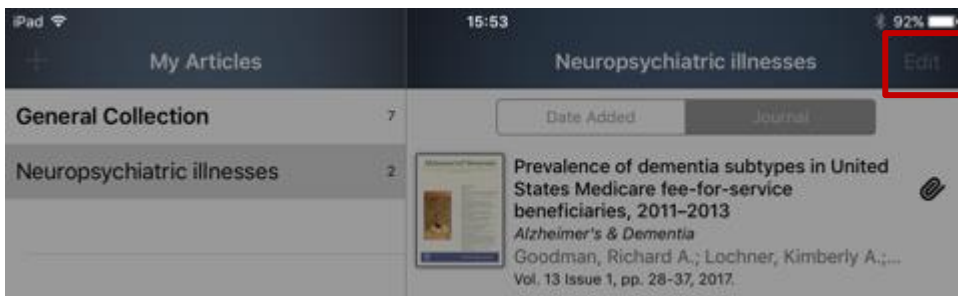

3. If any articles don't have a paperclip icon, click the article title to download the full text.

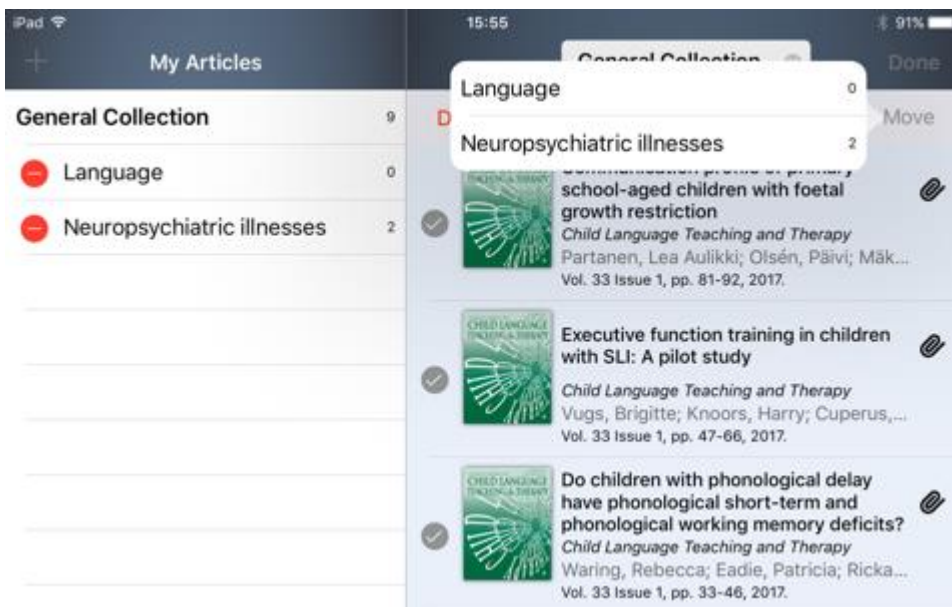

4. To add a new collection, click the plus sign in the top left of the screen and name the collection.

5. To move articles between collections, click Edit in top right.

6. Select articles, choose destination collection and then Done.

7. To Export articles, from an open PDF, click on the icon in the top-right hand corner and select the required destination. You will need an existing account (or to create one) for the bibliographic/reference management software.
