

Ebook functionality: VLeBooks

Help pages	For Keyboard functionality, see https://www.vlebooks.com/readerhelp.pdf
Customisation	Click the paint palette (top right) to change the book's background colour .
Number of simultaneous users	This varies according to the title.
Add to Bookshelf	Books can be saved to your Bookshelf.
How much can I download?	Temporary full book download is available for many, but not all titles.
Downloading to laptops/pcs	Downloading to university pcs is not possible because Adobe Digital Editions is required. To download to your own pc/laptop, see: https://www.vlebooks.com/vleweb/Help/DigitalEditions?id=Napier
Downloading to mobile devices	To download to Apple and Android devices, please see: https://www.vlebooks.com/vleweb/Help/iOSHelp?id=Napier or https://www.vlebooks.com/vleweb/Help/AndroidHelp?id=Napier Use the VleBooks or Bluefire Reader apps. If you experience any issues, please remove, reinstall and reauthorise the app(s).
Mobile phone friendly (online)	Tested on iPhone 7. Resizes, but probably better on larger phones.
Kindle download	Not possible.
How much can I print?	This varies by title. Clicking on the print icon displays the book's total print allowance, the number of pages already printed (can be reprinted) and the remaining print allowance. The open book icon (top left) also displays the pages and number of pages printed.
Copying text	Copy the text of a page by selecting Copy Page from the page icon (top right) and then highlighting the text and using Control C to copy. Clicking the open book icon (top left) displays the pages/number of pages copied.
Scroll	Use the hand icon to scroll.
Search within book	Yes.
Email link/social networking options	Link can be shared using a variety of options.
Reference tools	Dictionary (click search adjacent to contents). Clicking on a word produces a dialogue box. Choose Lookup Word to find its definition. Otherwise, click the dictionary icon (mid left) to find definitions. The range of definitions available is not comprehensive.
Make notes	Use the arrow (top icon bar right) to select text. Click the page icon. Add your note to the box which appears. Save. Annotations can be accessed

	via the small “square with pen icon” on the left. The following options also appear when this icon is clicked: Bookmark, Note, Import, Export, Share. You can import another user’s notes by clicking Import and inputting the token they have given you. You can share your notes by clicking Share to get a token. When reading online, use the Add notes button at the bottom left of the screen, and export using the Notes button on the top ribbon. When ebooks are downloaded to VLebooks eBook Reader, add notes using the ribbon icon at the top right. To email notes, click Bookmarks. Notes can only be emailed until the expiry of the download period.
Export to EndNote	Click “Download Citations” on ebook home page (in list below the book cover). Double clicking on the .ris file will make it open in EndNote on a university pc; or email the file to your Napier email and import into EndNote desktop version when on campus. Citations can also be added to Mendeley.
Accessibility	Accessibility Settings. Edit using the link on the ebook home page. For more on accessibility options, go to: https://www.vlebooks.com/vleweb/Help/AccessibilityGuidance?id=Napier
Password system	Use your Edinburgh Napier login (Ping).