

Undergraduate Module Decisions

Code	Description	The Board Decision	The action you are required to take
M	Merit	You have successfully completed all of your assessments for this module, and as the overall module mark is at least 65% and you have been awarded a Merit Pass	This module is now complete
P	Pass	You have successfully completed all of your assessments for this module	This module is now complete
AP	Assessment Pass	You have passed this component of assessment.	You have achieved at least the minimum mark/grade required for this component of assessment. Please ensure that you have achieved a Pass for your overall module result. If not you may be required to resit this component of assessment. Please check your Programme Assessment Board result on evision.

Undergraduate Module Decisions

AF	Assessment Fail	You have failed this component of assessment.	You have not been successful in this component of assessment and therefore you will be required to resit this. Information on your reassessment may be included with your Programme Assessment Board result on evasion
CP	Compensatory Pass	Due to the profile of your overall performance or extenuating circumstances, the Programme Assessment Board has awarded you a Compensatory Pass in this module. You will be awarded the credit for the module, but the original mark or grade will stand	This module is now complete You are not required to be reassessed in this module
RP	Repeat Module	You have not completed this module successfully and it has been agreed that you repeat the module with attendance	If you wish to pass this module you will need to attend all lectures, tutorials and/or practical sessions associated with the module next academic year and should retake all of the assessments
EA	Exceptional Attempt	You have not completed this module successfully. Due to the profile of your overall performance the Programme Assessment Board has decided to allow you one more attempt in this module	Please contact your School Office to confirm when the next re-assessment period will be, or discuss this with your Programme Leader or Personal Development Tutor. (Re)assessment coursework may be included with your Programme Assessment Board result on evasion.
ER	Emergency Regulations	You have not yet completed this module successfully but, due to specific mitigating circumstances, you will be able to take the related assessment/s as a first attempt – ie. the mark achieved will not be capped at 40% should you pass at the next diet. If the related assessment/s was itself a second attempt, you will be permitted to be reassessed again as if for the second time.	If not, or if you have any query, check with your School Office.

Undergraduate Module Decisions

EX	Extenuating Circumstances	You have not completed this module successfully but, due to specific mitigating circumstances, you will be able to take the related assessment/s as a first attempt – i.e. the mark achieved will not be capped at 40% should you pass at the next diet. If the related assessment/s was itself a second attempt, you will be permitted to be reassessed again as if for the second time.
F	Reassessment	You have not completed this module successfully. Exceptionally you may have exhausted your opportunities to retake this module.
QF	Qualified Fail	You have not completed this module successfully as you failed one component of assessment
NA	No Result Available	You have not completed this module successfully as you have not completed at least one component of assessment. If this was the second assessment attempt you have no further reassessment opportunities in this module.
PL	Plagiarism	This module is currently under investigation for academic misconduct. You will be notified once the investigation has concluded, and your module mark becomes available.

Undergraduate Module Decisions

--	--	--	--