

Reflecting on Feedback

Here at Edinburgh Napier, we want to help you to produce good assignments and to develop a wide range of skills. To help us, to help you, please write some answers to the following questions before submitting your assessment. Your answers can be written in each box. This will help you reflect on feedback already received, develop self-awareness of your academic skills and academic writing, and help us to provide you with relevant and personalised feedback.

SELF-REFLECTION ON YOUR FEEDBACK

We want to help you to produce good assignments and to develop a wide range of skills while you are at University. To help us, to help you, please provide some answers to the following questions before submitting your assessment. This will help you reflect on feedback already received, develop your skills, and help us to provide you with relevant and personalised feedback.

This is an optional opportunity. We will still mark your work if you do not use this opportunity to help us give you more personalised feedback.
