

Taught Postgraduate Module Decisions

Code	Description	Board Decision	Action Required
D1 – D5	Distinction	You have successfully completed this module and have been awarded a distinction grade.	This module is now complete. No further action needed.
P1 – P5	Pass	You have successfully completed this module.	This module is now complete. No further action needed.
CP	Compensatory Pass	Due to the profile of your overall performance or extenuating circumstances, the Programme Assessment Board has awarded you a Compensatory Pass in this module. You will be awarded the credit for the module, but the original mark or grade will stand	This module is now complete You are not required to be reassessed in this module

RP	Repeat Module	You have not completed this module successfully and it has been agreed that you repeat the module with attendance	If you wish to pass this module you will need to attend all lectures, tutorials and/or practical sessions associated with the module next academic year and should retake all of the assessments
ER	Emergency Regulations	You have not yet completed this module successfully but, due to specific mitigating circumstances, you will be able to take the related assessment/s as a first attempt – ie. the mark achieved will not be capped at P1 should you pass	Please contact your School Office to confirm when the next re-assessment period will be, or discuss this with your Programme Leader or Personal Development Tutor. (Re)assessment coursework maybe included with your Programme Assessment Board result on evasion
EX	Extenuating Circumstances	You have not yet completed this module successfully but, due to specific mitigating circumstances, you will be able to take the related assessment/s as a first attempt – ie. the mark achieved will not be capped at P1 should you pass
F1 – F5	Reassessment required or module failed	You have not completed this module successfully. If the F1 – F5 relate to the initial attempt, the maximum grade that can be obtained from the re-assessment is P1.
F6	Non Submission	You have not completed this module successfully as you have not completed at least one component of assessment. If this was the second assessment attempt you have no further reassessment	If not, or if you have any query, check with your School Office.

		opportunities in this module.
QF	Qualified Fail	You have not completed this module successfully as you failed one component of assessment
NA	No Result Available	You have not completed this module successfully as you have not completed one component of assessment
PL	Plagiarism	This module is currently under investigation for academic misconduct. You will be notified once the investigation has concluded, and your module mark becomes available.